Shalom Readers,

Carol and I are praying that this little ole catalog will provide enough information to guide you on where to start and what to do next. WildBranch is continually striving to produce teaching material that introduces you, our customer, to our Hebrew roots and digs deep enough into the ancient Hebrew language and culture to create a continual hunger for more of His awesome word.

Every product in this catalog is designed to reveal the end out of the beginning, no matter what the subject. If you are blessed, then we are blessed. From our hearts we thank you for your contribution in this work. Waiting for the merger with His kingdom, we are continuing to occupy.

Shalom Aleichem,

Brad Scott

The Heart of the Matter

A New Heart, YHVH's First Work

In this more devotional teaching, Brad focuses on the first work of YHVH, which is always the heart. Using the natural creation as his usual backdrop, Brad shows how all living things work the same way, which is why the Word of God is living and powerful. All living things are interdependent and in order.

Brad's concern is for the next generation. Using the story of Aaron's sons, Brad illustrates how we have in many ways circumvented the brazen altar and have sent the next generation running directly into the Holy Place.

There is a Creator

How To Respond To An Atheist

Many modern surveys are now telling us that atheism, primarily due to the proliferation of the Internet, is the fastest growing religion in the world. All media communication is saturated with godless music, movies, advertising, and conversation. The Internet is filed with articles and videos designed to tear our next generation away from the Creator and the Scriptures that reveal that Creator. Relentless questions and propositions sow the seeds of doubt in the God of Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob. These questions seem overwhelming and are difficult to answer for many people. In this series, Brad addresses the twenty most common questions that atheists and the new religion of "nones" always ask.

A Study of B<sup>e</sup>re'shiyt

Chapters 1–4

Isaiah 46:10 in Hebrew reveals that YHVH has “declared, from the beginning, the end.” Brad takes this verse very seriously in this comprehensive, 42 CD study of the first four chapters of B<sup>e</sup>re'shiyt (Genesis). Through the use of the natural and spiritual pictographic meanings of every Hebrew word in the beginning, Brad demonstrates that all of YHVH's desire, purpose, will, and prophecy can be found embedded in the creation story. From baptism to prophecy, from raising a family to the essence of repentance, the beginning declares to us the end, and everything in between. Also included is a 223 page workbook.

Chapters 5–6

Brad carries his back to the beginning style into the 5th and 6th chapters of B<sup>e</sup>re'shiyt (Genesis). This provocative period between the life of Cain and the flood is broken down word by word. Its coverage is from the revealing genealogies of Seth to the controversial Sons of God, as well as the giants and violence in the earth preceding the greatest deluge in history. Brad reveals, in intimate detail, the days of the coming of the Son of Man through the Hebrew language as pertaining to the Days of Noah. Come join us as we continue to reveal the end out of the beginning. Also included is an 82 page workbook.

A Study of B're'shiyt Chapters 7-11

The third part of this trilogy of the first eleven chapters of B're'shiyt (Genesis) contains most of the controversial issues that atheists and evolutionists have with the Scriptures. Brad meticulously reveals and defines all the first words of scripture that have their beginning in the flood of Noah, the record of the nations of the world, and the tower of Babel. Brad discusses in great detail the science of the flood, presenting a useful apologetic for the reality of the world wide flood of Noah. We are told that the days of Noah are likened unto the second coming of the Messiah. If the days of Noah are not literal, then what foundation do we have to believe that the coming of the Son of Man is to be taken literally? Also included is an 187 page workbook.

Paul the Apostle The Live Series

This dramatic presentation of Rav Sha'ul (Paul the Apostle) is realistically presented in full make-up and dress. Sha'ul combines his own writings, song, and humor to validate his reputation as one of the great penmen of the living Word of YHVH, his love for the Torah, and his passion for Messiah and His gift of grace. Featuring Brad Scott as Rav Sha'ul.

Disc 1: My Epistles According to Me

Rav Sha'ul makes a visit to America in this live on-stage presentation of the New Testament's most prolific writer. His love for Torah and his passion for Messiah are beautifully woven together in this humorous and heart-felt teaching from the Apostle himself.

Disc 2: Contending for the Faith

Rav Sha'ul returns to America one more time to answer the false rumors concerning his love for Torah and the prophets. Once again, he defends his devotion for his beloved Elishiva and Samuel, and his common sense attitude about life. Contending for the Faith promises to draw you a little closer to Rav Sha'ul as you laugh with him and cry with him.

Learning Research Tools

Brad methodically steps you through the use of lexicons and concordances for researching the meanings of scriptural words. Using PowerPoint slides, Brad shows how to trace New Testament words back to their Hebrew roots, and conversely, how to locate Hebrew words in the New Testament. By the end of this presentation you will know how to not only find the ancient Semitic meanings of words but you will also know how to break them down to their roots to help give concrete clarity to passages in Scripture.

Words Mean Things Back to the Mountain Top

The original meaning behind the words of our US Constitution were designed to always guide the path of our nation throughout all generations and so it is with the original words of our Scriptures. Using Agro-Bio linguistics (the meaning of words in their agricultural and biological setting) Brad goes back to the mountaintop where the water (words) are pure and pristine to reveal their ancient Hebrew meanings. In the beginning it is all about a house, a family and a piece of land.

2 Seeds Diametrically Opposed Creation and Evolution

This series takes an in depth look at the opposing views of creation: the seed of the woman, and evolution: the seed of the serpent. Brad not only discusses, from Scripture, the incompatible differences between creation and evolution, but shows how many religious doctrines have adopted an evolutionary point of view. Evolution is set against known, empirical science and is exposed as a belief system. Brad also demonstrates how the Scriptures anticipate this ancient struggle from the beginning, its presence today, and how it dramatically affects the end times.

The Tares Among the Wheat Prophecy in the Field

The identification of "he who withholds" in 2 Thesalonians 2:1–8 is imperative in end times prophecy. Brad takes this Restrainer back to the beginning to reveal his presence in the field from the opening chapters of B'e're'shiyt (Genesis). Embedded in the lives of Cain, Ishmael, and Esau is the clear paradigm of the Beast of Hitgalut (Revelation) in the end. The writings of the prophets and Yeshua's parables continue to teach the identity of the Restrainer as revealed in the natural things of creation. When something is important and it is from our Master and Creator, it is everywhere. Available in Audio CD, DVD, and paperback book format.

The Area 51 Series

Part 1: In My Flesh I See God

Using Iyov (Job) 19:26 as a springboard, Brad takes us on a journey in our bodies to see the design of the Hebrew language truly revealed in our flesh. Yeshua' tells us in Yochanan (John) 6:63 that the Word of God is life. If the Word of God created all things, we would expect to see the Word of God in all things.

Part 2: God Is Smarter Than We Are

Parents spend at least eighteen years of their lives training up their children in the way which they shall go only to send them off to institutions of higher education that are designed to remove their foundation.

Yeshua' told us that He was born into this world to bear witness to the truth. Are the Scriptures telling us the truth? Is God really smarter than we are? In this continuation of the Area 51 series, Brad discusses the Scriptures' revelation about subjects ranging from sub-atomic particles and the laws of thermodynamics to string theory, dark matter, and the Big Bang Theory. The restoration of the "pure" language has truly revealed that our Creator was right all along.

Part 3: The God Particle

For 50 years physicists have been searching for an unseen particle that, from their view, holds the whole universe together. This hidden mass-less force is the key to what brought all things into existence. Tiny subatomic particles make up all that is in the universe and these particles are called the “letters” of all matter. It is more than a coincidence that the dynamics of the Hebrew language, which framed the world and all that is in it, (Hebrews 11:3) is made up of letters and particles. In this continuation of the Area 51 series Brad reveals how  $E = mc^2$  testifies that Yeshua’ had to be God in the flesh and that theoretical physics is inching closer and closer to finding the One who created and sustains all things.

Sons of God, Giants and the New World Order

One of the most controversial scriptural subjects is found in a single verse in the sixth chapter of Genesis. Who are the "sons of God" that choose the daughters of men and "appear" to produce giants? The most common traditional theory for centuries has been fallen angels mating with human beings. Is this what the Hebrew text teaches? Is the fallen angels theory just another attempt of man to abdicate his responsibility and accountability here on earth as patterned in the opening chapters of Genesis? Brad details the Hebrew text of Genesis six by tracing the historical thread of mixing and man's inhumanity to man from Genesis to Revelation. Should the monstrous union of men and fallen angels be our greatest end times concern or the diabolical greed, power and wickedness of man?

The Principle of the Seed

Since 1993 this seminal teaching lies at the heart of everything Brad teaches. This simple, natural, agricultural principle is found in all of creation and most important of all, the Word that created all that is seen and unseen. Yeshua' Himself categorically stated that all parables, and subsequently all end time prophecies, are established in this truth. The Seed is the Word of God. It is a fundamental scriptural truth that lays the foundation for the identity of the children of God from the beginning. If you are interested in knowing the end you must go back to the beginning for there is only one good Seed. Book forward by Bill Cloud. Available in both audio CD and paperback book formats.

The Tanakh

The Dictionary of the New Testament

Using dozens of examples and tracing them back to the Old Testament, Brad demonstrates how the meaning of New Testament words are already defined in the beginning. This book starts at the beginning, examining words of YHVH, such as light, way, life, and truth. It also contains an extensive study on the word faith, taking one back to the Tanakh (Old Testament) to give a balanced and proper understanding of the original definition. Brad also explains why we use Hebrew words and scripturally defines what these five basic terms mean: Yeshua', church, repentance, salvation, under the law, plus much more!

The Shadow of Heavenly Things

Revealing the Body of the Messiah in the Tabernacle

The writer of the Book of Hebrews describes the Tabernacle of Moses as a shadow of heavenly things. Before building the Tabernacle, Moses was shown this structure on the Mount and was told to build it according to the pattern. Every piece of furniture and design of this structure is a shadow of the Body of Messiah. Brad breaks down all the parts of the Tabernacle into its linguistic and cultural beginnings to reveal ancient mysteries about our Messiah, and ultimately, ourselves.

Let This Mind Be in You

An historical study of the differences between Greek and Hebrew thought

What kind of mind do you suppose our Messiah had? Was He raised to think like Greek philosophers? Did He use inductive and deductive reasoning or comprehend the world in linear, evolutionary models? The fundamental differences between Eastern and Western thought are comprehensively researched in this provocative book on how to think like the Messiah. When we learn to think like He did, we soon learn to truly follow in the Messiah's footsteps.

The Tares Among the Wheat Revealing "The Restrainer" from the Beginning

The Scriptures teach us that the end is to be understood out of the beginning. Most prophetic ministries teach the end from the middle. Using the pictures of ancient Hebrew, Brad traces the restrainer back to the midst of the garden, through the lives of Cain, Ishmael and Esau, and concludes with the agricultural parables of Yeshua'. The restrainer, or he who withholds in 2 Thessalonians 2:6-8, is clearly seen, from the very beginning, holding back the wheat from producing fruit. There is only one way for the man of sin to be stopped and revealed. Restoration! It is time for the prodigal son to come home. Available in Audio CD, DVD, and paperback book format.

Gifts from the Bridegroom

The Scriptures teach us that Yeshua' (Jesus) is the same yesterday, today, and forever. Is it possible that the same could be said of our Heavenly Father? And what about the Holy Spirit? Is His work and ministry the same yesterday, today, and forever? Our Father's instructions, with particular emphasis on the Sabbath, feasts, and dietary laws, are being restored, but in the midst of much disagreement and with even greater confusion. Something still seems to be missing in the body of Messiah. In this book, Brad takes on the gifts of the Holy Spirit, taking them back to the beginning, teaching their function and purpose for the distressing and confusing times that we live in. Brad looks at the Holy Spirit through the lens of the natural creation and each gift that flows from that same Spirit is traced back to YHWH's (God's) perfect order.

AlephBet

The Building Blocks of Life

The AlephBet series needs to be a fundamental starting point for anyone's journey in learning the beautiful language of Hebrew. Beginning with the absolute design of all creation found in ancient Hebrew, Brad moves into the internal and external evidence of the original language of the Scriptures from B're'shiyt (Genesis) to Hitgalut (Revelation). The last 3 CDs are an introduction to the individual letters, their pictographic meanings, pronunciation, and numerical values. There is no better way to begin learning the words that framed the world. Included is a chart (located in the sleeve behind the cover, or as a PDF file attached with the download) of the letters and their meanings from the ancient pictures to the modern script.

Words Mean Things

Root Meanings of Common Scriptural Terms

Throughout both portions of this series, Brad thoroughly examines common words often found when studying and interpreting scriptures, their etymologies, and their uses. Brad maintains his “back to the beginning” style as he addresses the background of 88 fascinating words. Each word is thoroughly researched and traced throughout both Old and New Testaments.

How Then Shall We Live?

A Discussion on Law & Morality

Now that we are determined to turn back to our Hebrew roots, how do we now live? This series begins with a detailed study of many of the common words and phrases used in the New Testament.

Brad proceeds to go through numerous mitzvot (commandments), explaining their essence and to whom they apply. When you begin to actually study Torah, you will see that many of them you already are performing, some are for men, some for women, some for the children. Not every one is for you specifically, so the task at hand to be Torah observant is truly not a burden, but rather life giving.

Messianic Movement 101

Has the Church replaced Israel or are the "Jewish Believers" to become Christians? Who is grafted into whom? Is the Hebrew mind different from the Greek mind? What is legalism? Were there apostles in the Tanakh (Old Testament)? How about faith or baptism or the Gospel? Should Christians observe the Passover, or for that matter, any of the Feasts of YHVH (God)? Were the early church fathers faithful to the Scriptures? What is a Hebrew idiom and how does it affect my understanding of the parables and messages of the New Testament? Why is our culture in moral decay? These questions and more are answered in this introductory series to the Hebrew Roots Movement.

Series 1

In this first series, Brad gives scriptural answers to Paul's comments about being under the law and observers of times and seasons as well as Paul's remarks about Yeshua' being the end of the law and all days being the same. He also addresses the schoolmaster and the allegory of Sarah and Hagar. Brad also confronts blotting out the handwriting of ordinances, and Paul's comments to Timothy in 1 Timothy 4:1–5. In the last two CDs, Brad traces the history of food in Scripture from the beginning and its context in Peter's vision of the sheet, Yeshua's comments in Mark 7 and the dietary laws in general. An essential teaching for those who are harassed over food issues.

Paul:

False Apostle or Fairly Accused?

Paul the Apostle has for centuries been the poster boy for “Doing away with the Torah” in traditional Christianity and Judaism. He is considered by many outside of Christianity to be one of the false apostles Yeshua’ warned us about. It is now being taught that Sha’ul (Paul) is actually the man of sin and the son of perdition that he himself writes about in 2 Thessalonians! His writings are still being seen from a Greek/ Western point of view and twisted to conform to modern religious views regarding the instructions of our Father. In this series, Brad addresses the halakhic and ’aggadic background of Sha’ul’s words, followed by a detailed look at many of the passages that Paul’s accusers are proclaiming as evidence that he was a false witness, the founder of Christianity, hated by the other apostles, and that he actually despised the Torah.

Romans IX - X - XI

The Gospel of the God of Israel

In this series, Brad addresses the heart of the book of Romans: chapters 9, 10, and 11. Following the well known patterns of this book, Brad highlights Paul’s themes to the epitome of the western church, the assembly in Rome. Knowing that a fundamental theological issue needs to be confronted, Paul exhorts the congregation in Rome with the truth; that what the beloved are seeing before their very eyes is the fulfillment of the prophets of old. In the midst of establishing the continuity of the Tanakh (Old Testament) in this book, Brad also takes the time to establish some etymological definitions of key words such as gospel, grafted, zion, and election.

The Ministry and Gifts of the Holy Spirit

Brad addresses one of the most controversial subjects for students of scripture: the gifts of the Holy Spirit. Brad begins this series by showing, from scripture, that when someone has received the word (seed), they have received the Ruach haQodesh (Holy Spirit) and the Messiah. In this series, Brad shows that all of the gifts are from the beginning (Tanakh) and are not new to the children of Israel. Brad tackles the divisive issue of tongues and the operation and ministry of the Spirit of God from the beginning. He shows how much of the controversy is understood through the reuniting of the house of Israel and the house of Judah.

1 Corinthians

Chapters 1–16

The consensus of most New Testament scholars is that Paul's first letter to the Corinthians contains the most controversial passages of all the books in the New Testament.

In the first volume (CDs 1–14) of Brad's word by word study of this letter, he addresses the issues of fornication, adultery, marriage, wives, virgins, circumcision, attacks on his apostleship, all things being lawful, food offered to idols, the cup of demons, Passover, and being all things to all people.

In the second volume (CDs 15–27) of this series on Paul's first letter to the Corinthians, Brad continues to address the issues causing division among the saints in Corinth. He addresses the concerns over spiritual gifts, prophecy in the assembly, defining the gospel, and the details of the resurrection as they are understood through the natural laws of the universe and physics.

The Church in the Book of Acts

What was the church like in the book of Acts? Was it anything like it is today? Do the Scriptures teach “sun”day worship in place of the Sabbath? Was Luke a gentile? Did Yeshua’s resurrection make the dietary instructions obsolete? Did the early Jewish believers replace our Creator’s festivals with Christmas and Easter? Did Paul the Apostle really teach against the laws and customs of Moses? Is the book of Acts just another saga in the teaching of progressive dispensationalism? Was “the church” in the Old Testament? Did the weekly communion replace the Passover? Did the feast of Pentecost occur in the upper room? These and many other questions are explained in this provocative look into the book of Acts.

Six Things YHVH Hates, Yea Seven...

The Imploding Hebrew Roots Movement

Is the Hebrew Roots movement collapsing in on itself? Is our Father moving in another direction or just getting our attention to return to our first love? Brad takes a hard look at the seven things that God hates in Proverbs 6:16–19. Brad breaks down all the pertinent words in this proverb to reveal why he thinks there is such confusion and division in the body of Messiah, and what we can do to restore our Father’s trust in His people.

Ezekiel's Wheel

The Restoration of the Torah

Our Creator’s constant call to mankind from Genesis to Revelation has been to repent, to return and to restore. In this series, Brad teaches the remez, drash and sod of the vision given to Ezekiel for the nations. Brad clearly connects the opening chapter of B’re’shiyt (Genesis) to “the wheel of Genesis” found in James 3:6 via Ezekiel’s wheel, so, once again, no man stands before God with any excuse. Come and hear what is the message of the watchman on the wall.

"as the days of a tree..."

Seeing the end from the beginning in a field.

In the beginning there are two trees in the garden, and in the end there is only one. Between those times, mankind finds himself in one of those two trees. From the wood on Isaac's shoulder and the trees of the proverbist, to the sticks of Ezekiel and the olive trees of Romans; the Messiah and His people spring from one, and the adversary and his ilk spring from the other. Yeshua' claimed that the field is the world. Brad roots around the Scriptures to take an in depth look at why Y'sha'yahu (Isaiah) 65:22 revealed to us that "... as the days of a tree are the days of my people."

"...for the earth was filled with violence."

When so-called natural disasters occur, are they just "Mother Nature," an act of God, or happenstance? Is it possible that mankind's obedience or disobedience to the Word of God plays a major role in what happens to the earth and the universe itself? Once again, Brad begins in the garden tracing the effects of the unseen reality onto the things that we see. Religious men are historically in the business of making the Torah a theological issue or a set of doctrines that separate one religious system from another. However, winding meticulously through the Hebrew language, while combining the laws of physics, the conclusion is clear: The restoration of the Torah is what destroys evil and hastens the coming of Yeshua'.

The War Scroll

The Final Battle Between the Sons of Light and the Sons of Darkness

Secreted in a cave near the Dead Sea for 2000 years was a scroll describing an end time battle between the sons of light and the sons of darkness. Using images and details from Israel's exodus from Egypt, the War Scroll depicts a final confrontation between the wheat and the tares that takes place in the wilderness, followed by a trek to Jerusalem. In the end, the tares are removed out of the midst of the wheat precisely the way Yeshua' revealed them in His parables. In this series, Brad takes you through many of the amazing comparisons in the War Scroll, between the exodus in Scripture and the ancient prophecies and revelations found in the Dead Sea Scrolls. In his traditional style, Brad identifies the characters involved in these battles by exposing them through the ancient Hebrew language.

“...male and female created He them.”

Brad addresses the issues of male and female functions in the Kingdom. Beginning in B<sup>e</sup>re'shiyt (Genesis), Brad discusses the initiating and responding roles of man and woman, the historical difference of genders, and a discussion of several New Testament passages that appear to make women second-class citizens in the Kingdom. Also addressed are the topics of getting along with brethren, divorce, and remarriage.

Answering Judah's Objections

Yeshua' — The Stumbling Block

Until now, Brad has covered quite extensively the objections that western religions have to “non-Jews” believing in Yeshua’ and keeping the Torah. Many may be surprised to learn that modern Judaism has the same objection. The core issue for both major religions is the Messiah. In this series, Brad first addresses the stumbling blocks from an agricultural perspective and through the eyes of some of the most well known Rabbis of Judaism. In this 5 disc series, Brad concludes by addressing some of the most argued and oft used passages, such as the virgin of Y’sha’yahu (Isaiah) 7:14, the Mighty God of Y’sha’yahu 9:6 and the suffering servant of Y’sha’yahu 53.

There is a Creator

How To Respond To An Atheist

Many modern surveys are now telling us that atheism, primarily due to the proliferation of the Internet, is the fastest growing religion in the world. All media communication is saturated with godless music, movies, advertising, and conversation. The Internet is filled with articles and videos designed to tear our next generation away from the Creator and the Scriptures that reveal that Creator. Relentless questions and propositions sow the seeds of doubt in the God of Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob. These questions seem overwhelming and are difficult to answer for many people. In this series, Brad addresses the twenty most common questions that atheists and the new religion of “nones” always ask.
