PAUL
False Apostle — or — Falsely Accused?
The Accusations

- False apostle – Hitgalut (Revelation) 2:2
- Not qualified to be an apostle – Acts 1:20-26
- The man of sin/son of perdition/antichrist - 2 Thess 2
- Conflicting stories in Acts of his conversion
- Anti-Torah passages in Galatians, Romans, Colossians and Ephesians written before the book of Acts
- Hated by the other apostles and disciples because he was against the Torah
- Arrogant
- His name was Sha’ul
Who is Paul?

- Comes from Tarsus in Cilicia or what is now southern Turkey. Part Jewish/part philosophical, pagan, very commercial, very complex. Paul virtually mirrored his home city.
- Tentmaker? Probably Tarsuans were well known for this skill/Acts 18:3
- Raised in the LXX/Hellenistic diaspora, but went to Jerusalem to be trained as a Pharisee
- Remember the Pharisees mandated their rituals and traditions as opposed to other schools of thought. i.e. their miqvahs, their immersion, their circumcision, their tithing etc.
Who is Paul?

- According to The Acts of Paul 3.3/a 2nd cent apocryphal. Paul was short, bow legged, thick around the middle, unibrow.
- A Benjaminite Pharisee (who is now being rather anti-Pharisaical) from high brow Tarsus would have little in common with his Galilean brothers. Cp Tennessee to Yale in Connecticut. At first there would be a sizable element of distrust.
- Trained under Gamaliel.
“And account that the longsuffering of our Master is salvation; even as our beloved brother Paul also according to the wisdom given unto him hath written unto you; As also in all his epistles, speaking in them of these things; in which are some things hard to be understood, which they that are unlearned and unstable wrest, as they do also the other scriptures, unto their own destruction.”
Mizemor (Psalm) 82:5

“They know not, neither will they understand; they walk on in darkness: all the foundations of the earth are out of course.”
“They that forsake the Torah praise the wicked: but such as keep the Torah contend with them. Evil men understand not judgment: but they that seek YHVH understand all things.”
Yeša’yahu (Isaiah) 6:8-9

“Also I heard the voice of the Lord, saying, Whom shall I send, and who will go for us? Then said I, Here am I; send me. And he said, Go, and tell this people, Hear ye indeed, but understand not; and see ye indeed, but perceive not.”
Yeša’yahu (Isaiah) 44:18

“They have not known nor understood: for he hath shut their eyes, that they cannot see; and their hearts, that they cannot understand.”
“And I will bring the blind by a way that they knew not; I will lead them in paths that they have not known: I will make darkness light before them, and crooked things straight. These things will I do unto them, and not forsake them. They shall be turned back, they shall be greatly ashamed, that trust in graven images, that say to the molten images, Ye are our gods.”
Yeša’yahu (Isaiah) 42:18-20

“Hear, ye deaf; and look, ye blind, that ye may see. Who is blind, but my servant? or deaf, as my messenger that I sent? who is blind as he that is perfect, and blind as YHVH’s servant? Seeing many things, but thou observest not; opening the ears, but he heareth not.

Rabbinic view – ’Aggadah
Encyclopedia of Jewish Concepts

“The aim and purpose of ’aggadic literature is to inspire and edify, and to move people to the kind of righteous behavior which the halakhah requires.”
“...the portion of rabbinic teaching which is not halakhah....only so far as it seeks to adduce reasons for the mitzvot does ‘aggadah concern itself with the Torah.”
’Aggadah

narration, to tell, in front of, opposite, declare, show from life learned at the door

“Aggadah and halakhah together enable the mystic soul to live concretely. They ensure that practical affairs are suffused with spirit. Both manifest meaning and purpose in existence. Together they lead inexorably to heavenly days on earth.”
“The essential subject matter of Aggadah is the focusing and direction of the heart, and it’s goal is to infuse the masses with piety, with moral instruction and with sound beliefs...they clothed their homilies in words and idioms that the ordinary people could understand.”

Deuteronomy (Devarim) 1:31-33

“And in the wilderness, where thou hast seen how that YHVH thy God bare thee, as a man doth bear his son, in all the way that ye went, until ye came into this place. Yet in this thing ye did not believe YHVH your God, Who went in the way before you, to search you out a place to pitch your tents, in fire by night, to shew you by what way ye should go, and in a cloud by day.”

“And now, Israel, what doth YHVH thy God require of thee, but to fear YHVH thy God, to walk in all his ways, and to love him, and to serve YHVH thy God with all thy heart and with all thy soul,” Devariym (Deuteronomy) 30:16

“In that I command thee this day to love YHVH thy God, to walk in his ways, to keep his commandments and his statutes and his judgments, that thou mayest live and multiply: and YHVH thy God shall bless thee in the land whither thou goest to possess it.”
“He hath shewed thee, O man, what is good; and what doth YHVH require of thee, but to do justly, and to love mercy, and to walk humbly with thy God?”
“And walk in love, as Messiah also hath loved us, and hath given himself for us an offering and a sacrifice to God for a sweet smelling savour.”
“And this is love, that we walk after his commandments. This is the commandment, That, as ye have heard from the beginning, ye should walk in it.”

“And he spake boldly in the name of the Master Yeshua’, and disputed against the Grecians: but they went about to slay him.”
Acts 9:31

“Which when the brethren knew, they brought him down to Caesarea, and sent him forth to Tarsus. Then had the churches rest throughout all Judaea and Galilee and Samaria, and were edified; and walking in the fear of YHVH, and in the comfort of the Holy Spirit, were multiplied.”
Mishlei (Proverbs) 6:20-23

“My son, keep thy father's commandment, and forsake not the Torah of thy mother: Bind them continually upon thine heart, and tie them about thy neck. When thou goest, it shall lead thee; when thou sleepest, it shall keep thee; and when thou awakest, it shall talk with thee. For the commandment is a lamp; and the law is light; and reproofs of instruction are the way of life.”

2 Tim 3:16
“The way of peace they know not; and there is no judgment in their goings: they have made them crooked paths: whosoever goeth therein shall not know peace. Therefore is judgment far from us, neither doth justice overtake us: we wait for light, but behold obscurity; for brightness, but we walk in darkness.”
1 Yochananan (John) 1:6-7

“If we say that we have fellowship with him, and walk in darkness, we lie, and do not the truth: But if we walk in the light, as he is in the light, we have fellowship one with another, and the blood of Messiah Yeshua’ his Son cleanseth us from all sin.”
“And when they come from the market, except they wash, they eat not. And many other things there be, which they have received to hold, as the washing of cups, and pots, brasen vessels, and of tables. “By faith Enoch was translated that he should not see death; and was not found, because God had translated him: for before his translation he had this testimony, that he pleased God. But without faith it is impossible to please him: for he that cometh to God must believe that he is, and that he is a rewarder of them that diligently seek him.”

(‘aggadic view)

“Do you desire to know the One who spoke and the world came into being? Study ’Aggadah, for through it you will come to know the One who spoke and the world came into being, and to cling to God’s ways. Life’s blessing is to be found not in that which can be weighed and measured but rather in that which is hidden from view.”
Rav Isaac Kook
Black fire on White fire

“When we think about a Torah scroll, we usually only consider the letters themselves, written in black ink. Yet, the Talmud (Menachot 29a) rules that every letter in a Torah scroll must be completely surrounded by parchment. In other words, the white parchment around the letters is an integral part of the Torah; without it, the Torah scroll is disqualified. In fact, the white space is a higher form of Torah. It is analogous to the white fire of Sinai — a sublime, hidden Torah that cannot be read in the usual manner.”
Mizmor (Psalm) 51:6

“Behold, thou desirest truth in the inward parts: and in the hidden part thou shalt make me to know wisdom.”

Yesha’yahu (Isaiah) 45:3

“And I will give thee the treasures of darkness, and hidden riches of secret places, that thou mayest know that I, YHVH, which call thee by thy name, am the God of Israel.”
Devariyym 29:29

“The secret things belong unto YHVH our God: but those things which are revealed belong unto us and to our children for ever, that we may do all the words of this law.”

Mizmor (Psalm) 119:11

“Thy word have I hid in mine heart, that I might not sin against thee.”
2 Corinthians 4:3

“And to make all men see what is the fellowship of the mystery, which from the beginning of the world hath been hid in God, who created all things by Messiah Yeshua‘:”
Colossians 1:25-26

“Whereof I am made a minister, according to the dispensation of God which is given to me for you, to fulfil the word of God;
Even the mystery which hath been hid from ages and from generations, but now is made manifest to his saints:”
Colossians 2:2-3

“That their hearts might be comforted, being knit together in love, and unto all riches of the full assurance of understanding, to the acknowledgement of the mystery of God, and of the Father, and of Messiah; In whom are hid all the treasures of wisdom and knowledge.”
“Aggadah is thus inextricably linked with Halakhah and cannot survive without it…In sum, one who says “I hold only Aggadah” cannot grasp Aggadah itself…one who says I hold only Halakah, cannot grasp even Halakhah…”
“And sometimes the line between halakah and haggadic interpretations is hard to draw”
Ein Yakov

“Someone who has mastered ‘aggadah but not halakhah has not even tasted the flavor of wisdom. But someone who has mastered halakhah but does not know the teachings of ‘aggadah has not even felt the taste of the fear of God.”

Rabbi Judah Loew of Prague - 16th CE

Interpretation of Bere’shiyt 28:11

“And he took one of the stones of the place and put it under his head.” This means that the stones quarreled with one another. One stone said, “Let this righteous man rest his head on me,” while the another said, “let his head rest on me.”
“Mishnah. One who curses his father or mother is not punished unless he curses them by the divine name. If he cursed them by an attribute, Rabbi Meir held him liable, but the sages ruled that he is exempt.”
“He who strikes his father or his mother is liable only if he wounds them. In this respect, cursing is more stringent than smiting, for, he who curses (his parents) after death is liable, whilst he who smites them after death is not.”
Raba said, “If one bound his neighbor and he died of starvation, he is not liable to execution...if he bound him in the sun, and he died, or in a place of intense cold and he died, he is liable; but if the sun was yet to appear, or the cold to make itself felt, he is not...if he bound him before a lion he is not liable, before mosquitoes {who stung him to death} he is.”
Babylonian Talmud Sanh. 76b-77a

R. Ashi said, “Even before mosquitoes, he is not liable, because these go and others come.”
Our Rabbis taught [and the man that commiteth adultery with another man’s wife, even he that commiteth adultery...shall surely be put to death.] ‘The man’ excludes a minor; that commiteth adultery with another man’s wife excludes the wife of a minor; ‘even he that commiteth adultery with his neighbor’s wife’ excludes the wife of a heathen.”

R. Joseph said: “Come and hear! A maiden aged three years and a day may be acquired in marriage by coition [coitus] and if her deceased husband’s brother cohabits with her, she becomes his.”
It was taught: R. Simeon b. Yohai stated: “A proselyte who is under the age of three years and a day is permitted to marry a priest, for it is said, But all the women children that have not known man by lying with him, keep alive for yourselves and Phineas surely was with them.”

“And he entered again into the synagogue; and there was a man there which had a withered hand. And they watched him, whether he would heal him on the sabbath day; that they might accuse him. And he saith unto the man which had the withered hand, Stand forth.”
“And he saith unto them, Is it lawful to do good on the sabbath days, or to do evil? to save life, or to kill? But they held their peace. And when he had looked round about on them with anger, being grieved for the hardness of their hearts, he saith unto the man, Stretch forth thine hand. “Owe no man any thing, but to love one another: for he that loveth another hath fulfilled the law. For this, Thou shalt not commit adultery, Thou shalt not kill, Thou shalt not steal, Thou shalt not bear false witness, Thou shalt not covet; and if there be any other commandment, it is briefly comprehended in this saying, namely, Thou shalt love thy neighbour as thyself. Love worketh no ill to his neighbour: therefore love is the fulfilling of the law.”

2 Corinthians (57 a.d.) 3:1-3
This is Paul Midrashing on Shemot 34

“Do we begin again to commend ourselves? or need we, as some others, epistles of commendation to you, or letters of commendation from you? Ye are our epistle written in our hearts, known and read of all men: Forasmuch as ye are manifestly declared to be the epistle of Messiah ministered by us, written not with ink, but with the Spirit of the living God; not in tables of stone, but in fleshy tables of the heart.”
“Let not mercy and truth forsake thee: bind them about thy neck; write them upon the table of thine heart:”
“And I will give them one heart, and I will put a new spirit within you; and I will take the stony heart out of their flesh, and will give them an heart of flesh:”
2 Corinthians 3:4-5

“And such trust have we through Messiah to God-ward: Not that we are sufficient of ourselves to think any thing as of ourselves; but our sufficiency is of God;”
2 Corinthians 3:6

“Who also hath made us able ministers of the new testament; not of the letter, but of the spirit: for the letter killeth, but the spirit giveth life.”
“But if the ministration of death, written and engraven in stones, was glorious, so that the children of Israel could not stedfastly behold the face of Moses for the glory of his countenance; which glory was to be done away:”
“How shall not the ministration of the spirit be rather glorious? For if the ministration of condemnation be glory, much more doth the ministration of righteousness exceed in glory. For even that which was made glorious had no glory in this respect, by reason of the glory that excelleth.”
“For if that which is done away was glorious, much more that which remaineth is glorious. Seeing then that we have such hope, we use great plainness of speech:”
“And not as Moses, which put a vail (masveh) over his face, that the children of Israel could not stedfastly look to the end of that which is abolished: But their minds were blinded: for until this day remaineth the same vail untaken away in the reading of the old testament; which vail is done away in Messiah. But even unto this day, when Moses is read, the vail is upon their heart.”
“Nevertheless when it shall turn to YHVH, the vail shall be taken away. Now YHVH is that Spirit: and where the Spirit of YHVH is, there is liberty. But we all, with open face beholding as in a glass the glory of YHVH, are changed into the same image from glory to glory, even as by the Spirit of YHVH.”
2 Corinthians 4:1-3

“Therefore seeing we have this ministry, as we have received mercy, we faint not; But have renounced the hidden things of dishonesty, not walking in craftiness, nor handling the word of God deceitfully; but by manifestation of the truth commending ourselves to every man's conscience in the sight of God. But if our gospel be hid, it is hid to them that are lost:”
“In whom the god of this world hath blinded the minds of them which believe not, lest the light of the glorious gospel of Messiah, who is the image of God, should shine unto them. For we preach not ourselves, but Messiah Yeshua’ the Master; and ourselves your servants for Jesus' sake. For God, who commanded the light to shine out of darkness, hath shined in our hearts, to give the light of the knowledge of the glory of God in the face of Yeshua’ the Messiah.”
Before going to Galatians 4 discuss where the Torah states that the Torah is intended to be written on our heart.

- If you love me keep ……
- Yesha 51:7 He knew it
- Yirm 31:33
- Psalm 37:31, 40:8, 119:11…David knew it, where did he get that from?
- Mishlei 4:4
- Dvariym 6:4-6
- Abraham our Father (model, paradigm) Bere 15:6, 17:5, MT 3:9,
Galatians 4:21

“Tell me, ye that desire to be under the law, do ye not hear the law?”

- i.e. do you understand? Under the law is synonymous to being in the flesh. NO RELATIONSHIP/NO POWER TO FOLLOW AND OBEY
Galatians 4:22-23

“For it is written, that Abraham had two sons, the one by a bondmaid, the other by a freewoman. But he who was of the bondwoman was born after the flesh; but he of the freewoman was by promise.”

To Abraham – first believe then obey
Galatians 4:24-25

“Which things are an allegory: for these are the two covenants; the one from the mount Sinai, which gendereth to bondage, which is Agar. For this Agar is mount Sinai in Arabia, and answereth to Jerusalem which now is, and is in bondage with her children.”

- Two covenants – one covenant is made without faith and the other in faith.
Galatians 4:26-27

“But Jerusalem which is above is free, which is the mother of us all. For it is written, Rejoice, thou barren that bearest not; break forth and cry, thou that travailest not: for the desolate hath many more children than she which hath an husband.”
The covenant entered into by faith is free from the bondage of man’s ways (Hagar). It is the bearer of all of us who have entered the covenant by faith and trust (Sarah). The ramification of Abraham and Hagar produced the enemy of Isaac and servitude to enemies even until this day.

READ ISAIAH 54:1-7 – preceded by description of Yeshua bearing our sins and iniquities. (Passover lamb) and ALL we like sheep have gone astray. Now multitudes of gentiles will come into the kingdom. Those who are generated by faith are all born from the same mother pictured by Sarah, so enlarge thy tents for many children are coming in and the true seed shall inherit the gentiles.
“Now we, brethren, as Isaac was, are the children of promise. But as then he that was born after the flesh persecuted him that was born after the Spirit, even so it is now.”
“Nevertheless what saith the scripture? Cast out the bondwoman and her son: for the son of the bondwoman shall not be heir with the son of the freewoman. So then, brethren, we are not children of the bondwoman, but of the free.”

Romans 14:13-14

“Let us not therefore judge one another any more: but judge this rather, that no man put a stumblingblock or an occasion to fall in his brother's way. I know, and am persuaded by the Master Yeshua’, that there is nothing unclean of itself: but to him that esteemeth any thing to be unclean, to him it is unclean.”
“For meat (broma) destroy not the work of God. All things indeed are pure; but it is evil for that man who eateth with offence.”
Galatians 3:16

“Now to Abraham and his seed were the promises made. He saith not, And to seeds, as of many; but as of one, And to thy seed, which is Messiah.”
Galatians 3:17

“And this I say, that the covenant, that was confirmed before of God in Messiah, the law, which was four hundred and thirty years after, cannot disannul, that it should make the promise of none effect.”
Galatians 3:18

“For if the inheritance be of the law, it is no more of promise: but God gave it to Abraham by promise.”
“Wherefore then serveth the law? It was added because of transgressions, till the seed should come to whom the promise was made; and it was ordained by angels in the hand of a mediator. Now a mediator is not a mediator of one, but God is one.

Galatians 3:21-22

"Is the law then against the promises of God? God forbid: for if there had been a law given which could have given life, verily righteousness should have been by the law. But the scripture hath concluded all under sin, that the promise by faith of Yeshua’ the Messiah might be given to them that believe."
“But before faith came, we were kept under the law, shut up unto the faith which should afterwards be revealed.”
“Stand fast therefore in the liberty wherewith Messiah hath made us free, and be not entangled again with the yoke of bondage.”
“Behold, I Paul say unto you, that if ye be circumcised, Messiah shall profit you nothing. For I testify again to every man that is circumcised, that he is a debtor to do the whole law.”
“Messiah is become of no effect unto you, whosoever of you are justified by the law; ye are fallen from grace. For we through the Spirit wait for the hope of righteousness by faith.”
Notes Romans 14:14

- Unclean/clean here is NOT tahor and tamie but rather koinos or common
- Context is in verse 1 & 13 - that is words used in 1 Cor 8 & 10 – foods offered to idols
Notes on 1 Corinthians 7:17-22

- Context is ‘circumcision’ (house of Judah) and uncircumcision (house of Israel) see Ephesians 2:11-12, Acts 10:45, 11:2, Romans 2:25-26, Romans 3:1, 3:30, 4:9

- The presupposition is that this is a contrast between Israel and the Gentiles/Church. The contrast is between Jew and Gentile.

- There is nothing a Gentile can do to become a Jew and there is nothing a Jew can do to become a Gentile. If a Jew is uncircumcised he is still a Jew.
